About the CC2Conflict Project:

The CCLIMATE-CONFLICTS project explores the causal pathways between climate change, violent conflicts, and welfare across different institutional contexts. For project details, please visit our website: www.cc2conflicts.unifi.it

About Grazia Pacillo:

Grazia Pacillo leads CGIAR's Climate Security research flagship, managing a team of 70 experts across 26 countries to advance solutions at the nexus of climate, fragility, migration, and security. She provides strategic leadership on partnerships, resource mobilization, and high-level advocacy, positioning CGIAR science in global policy arenas such as the UN Security Council, COP presidencies, and the UN Food Systems Summit. Her work has shaped national and regional frameworks, including Kenya's Climate Action Plan, Zambia's Green Growth Strategy, and the AU Climate Risk Assessment. She spearheaded the CGIAR Climate Security Observatory, recognized among the top 10 game-changing solutions at the 2021 UNFSS. Earlier, she worked with CIAT, IFAD, and Save the Children on climate-resilient programs across Africa and Asia.
